A Beautiful Wedding

Miss Nancy Walker Becomes Bride of W. B. Burton at Lancaster

One of the prettiest weddings, ever seen in Lancaster, occurred at the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock, Saturday evening, when the marriage of William B. Burton and Miss Nancy Walker, was solemnized. The church was most elaborately decorated in ferns, southern smilax and white lilies and chrysanthemums, the white and green decorations being tastefully and artistically used. The entire chancel was concealed by a screen of white lilies and smilax, in the center of which, and on either side upon white standards, were baskets of white chrysanthemums, the handles of which were tied with green tulle.

For some time before the ceremony, a musical program was rendered by the musical faculty of the Woman's College, of Danville, consisting of a pianist, violinist and soloist. The musicians were completely hidden behind the decorations, which extended across the church, and the low, sweet strains of the piano and violin during the ceremony made it more impressive. The bride and groom entered the church to the strains of the wedding march. The bridesmaids slowly proceeded one by one up the right aisle and the groomsmen, opposite, up the left, crossing at the altar forming a semi-circle. Messrs. John Gill Kinaird, Clay Kaufman, and Horace Walker were the groomsmen, and the bridesmaids were Misses Martha and Edna Kavanaugh, of Lancaster and Miss Annie May Walker, of Richmond. The bridesmaids' dresses were white net and lace in flounces, upon which were rows of narrow green ribbon. They wore caps and veils of tulle, and carried white chrysanthemums tied with green tulle.

The maid of honor, Miss Minnie May Robinson, wore an empire gown of light green messaline ruffled to the waist, and carried pink roses. Little Lucy Bates Denny, the flower girl, carried a basket of roses. Following her, came the bride, wearing a superb gown of Duchess satin V-neck and long sleeves, with court train extending from the shoulders. Her veil was caught into a cap with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a large bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. It was conceded by all, that a more beautiful bride was rarely seen.

The groom upon the arm of the best man, Dr. Pontius, of State College, Lexington, met her at the altar, where a beautiful ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Hugh Hudson, the Presbyterian minister, the ring being used to plight their troth.

Immediately after the ceremony they repaired to the home of the bride's brother, Judge Lewis Walker, where the bridal dress was changed for a traveling suit of brown broadcloth with hat and furs to match and the bridal party left in autos for Danville to take the train for North Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride is one of Lancaster's most charming and loved young women, being as beautiful of character as she is of face and figure. The groom is a worthy young man of fine business qualities and is very popular both in social and business circles.

BIG COAL MINE DEAL

Announcement was made last week of the completion of negotiations, pending for the past week, by which C. H. Brady, of Owensboro, transfers to J. H. Sowder, of Barbourville, the Fern Hill coal mining properties located three miles below Owensboro. The consideration paid was not made public although it was stated that it would run well over $25,000. By his purchase Mr. Sowder becomes the owner of about 600 acres of mineral rights, all improvements on the property and the coal tipples in Owensboro. Mr. Sowder stated that it was his intention to begin operations at the mines at once. Extensive improvements will be made. Mr. Sowder said that he expected to employ 100 miners and more on the properties. He contemplates the removal of between 400 and 600 tons of coal per day for which he says he has already a heavy demand for delivery at a top market price. C. H. Brady, the seller of the properties, purchased them at master's commissioner's sale May 15, 1916. He paid at the sale $12,000 for which he acquired a property representing an original investment of $150,000. The mines have been closed since the middle of June.

WANTS TO VOTE FOR WILSON

John Reid, of Milledgeville, who has been spending some time here as the guest of Jailer George DeBorde on a charge of spiriting witnesses away, was released Saturday, his friend A. A. Russell, of Shelby City going his replevin bond for $50 for the balance of the term unexpired. Mr. Russell said that Mr. Reid's family needed him badly. Mr. Reid, who has made a model prisoner in every way, said that he is glad to get back home before election as he wants to vote for Woodrow Wilson again, which shows that he is the right sort of a democrat.

$200,000 WORTH OF HOGS

Since the first of January, 1916, the local stock buying firm of Jones & Cress, have shipped 135 car loads of hogs to the Cincinnati market, representing some thing like $200,000 to the hog raisers of this county. As these gentlemen also buy cattle by the thousands during the course of a year, some idea of the extent of the business they are doing with the farmers can be obtained.

Soldier Predicts War

In Short Time If Hughes Is Elected President

Private Coleman Lutes, of Uncle Sam's army, stationed at Fort McKinley, Maine, writes to his father, John Lutes here that in the event of the election of Hughes to the presidency next Tuesday, you may expect to see this country soon embroiled in war. Lutes is in the army and knows whereof he speaks when he says that "war is hell" and he urges everyone who does not want to see such a desperate chance taken, to go to the polls and vote for Wilson, who has so far kept this country out of war when all the rest of the world is aflame with fire. A letter from young Lutes' commanding officer to his father here, says that the Stanford boy, is making a fine record in the service. He has just been promoted to First Private. His term of enlistment will soon be up and a splendid position has been offered him if he wishes to accept it and not go back to the army. In writing to his father, young Lutes said:

Dear Father:— I just got your letter and I am always glad to hear from home. It has just turned cold here now. Well, I guess old Kentucky will go Democratic, at least I hope so. If all of the soldiers had a vote, Wilson would be elected. He has kept us out of war, and I know he has. The way Hughes talks, he wants war. I think Wilson will get a lot of votes in Maine. A man is a fool not to vote for Wilson. Well, if Hughes is elected, look out. He will plunge this country into war at once and the people are seeing it too. I never did vote the Republican ticket and I never expect to, but if Wilson was a Republican, I think I would vote for him and I think I would be doing my duty, for war is hell, and I know the people who vote for Hughes don't know that in a few days or few months their boys may be sent to war. Hughes is worse than Roosevelt. Let the people vote for Hughes, if they want their sons to go to war. They can be made to go, and a man that is trained is worth a half dozen not trained.

It takes two years to make a soldier and a man in the army has got to do just as they say. It is a pity I did not come to the army when I was 18 years old. They sure do make a man out of you. Everything has got to be done one way in the army, and you have to do it, or die sure. If a man is a man he can get along all right, any place. I have served two years and one month. The last congress passed a law, any man with one year's service can go on the army reserve, if he is an excellent soldier. The President can call you back in case of war. I will get $24 a year, for five years. There are just three men getting out of my company. A man has got to be superior drilled in every respect, and an excellent character, so my captain said I was one of the three. I will have an honorable discharge, which is more than lots of them can say. Well, I don't know, papa, where I will go or I don't know what I will do when I get out, but I am going to settle down and try to make a man out of myself. Love to all.

COLEMAN LUTES.

CHURCH OFFICERS ORDAINED

On Sunday, October 29, there was held an ordination service at the Presbyterian church. After the sermon at 11 o'clock W. H. Higgins and W. B. McKinney were installed as Elders; and J. W. Rout and Hugh Roe were ordained and installed as deacons. The form of ordination used was that required by the constitution of the Presbyterian church. A good, attentive congregation was present. The new officers begin work with the support of the prayers and sympathies of the people.

News of the Churches

H. C. Shoulders, of Winchester, will preach at the little chapel or Lancaster street Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will claim the date of Dec. 9th for their annual bazaar.

The revival services at the Christian church at Broadhead closed last week with five additions to the church.

Presiding Elder C. H. Greer, of Danville, passed through Stanford late last week en route to Pineville and other points in Bell county and the mountain, to hold quarterly meetings.

Rev. W. D. Welburn is conducting a protracted meeting at Neal's Creek church, holding services every night at 6:30. Rev. J. M. Robinson, of Preachersville is doing the preaching.

The revival services at the First Baptist church at Winchester closed last week with 63 additions. Rev. R. L. Scarbrough, of Fort Worth, Tex., did the preaching.

The Baptists of Graves county did an unprecedented thing when they elected Senator W. A. Frost, moderator of their association instead of a minister. He well deserves such an honor and distinction, however.

Presbyterian Church, Sunday, Nov. 5.—Address at 11 o'clock by Rev. Dr. C. R. Hemphill, of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, of Kentucky. All Presbyterians should hear him. Wednesday evening, mid-week service at 7 o'clock. "God's Care of the Individual."

FOR A MUDDY COMPLEXION Take Chamberlain's Tablets and adopt a diet of vegetables and cereals. Take outdoor exercise daily and your complexion will be greatly improved within a few months. Try it. Obtainable everywhere.

Smash Nicholasville

Local Foot Ball Boys Defeat Visitors 59 to 0 Here Saturday

In about another year the Stanford High School football team will begin to approach the proportions of the famous eleven of a few years ago which swept all opposition before it; the eleven upon which the Coleman boys, Wesley Embury, Mike Penny, and others of that day were stars. The team of youngsters which has been developing for the past few years showed that they have the right ideas and the right stuff in them, when on Saturday afternoon they walloped the boys from the Threlkeld High School of Nicholasville by a score of 57 to 0.

Coach Todd had his youngsters playing fast football all during the game and at no time were the visitors able to penetrate their defense. Exceptionally good work, of course was done by Joe T. Embury, and Bryan Perkins, who were the bright particular stars of the team always. Others who did especially fine work were Maurice Tucker, Stith Noe, Henly and John Cash, "Tub" Martin at center. Sam and "Slim" Hill, Morgan Baughman, playing his first full game on the "big line" showed he has the right stuff in him and did nice work. The visitors fought hard but were outclassed from start to finish and the scoring of Stanford was almost a procession after the local machine got to working right.

A feature of the afternoon was a one-round fist fight between Coach Bowen and a youngster named Inglehart, both of Nicholasville. The Nicholasville official put Inglehart out of the game and the latter jumped him about it after the game. The argument quickly came to blows, and the youngster was giving the coach all he could handle when the added attraction was stopped by spectators.

Rawling's Fine Speech

Splendid Arguments For Wilson At Hustonville Last Week

Hustonville, Oct. 31.

Rousing speeches for Democracy were made at Hustonville last Friday night before an enthusiastic audience. The principal addresses were made by Judge Fox and Hon. J. W. Rawlings, of Danville. They were introduced by Attorney K. S. Alcorn, of Stanford, with a few pleasing remarks. Judge Fox spoke about 15 minutes and was followed by Mr. Rawlings in one of the ablest speeches that have been heard here for many a day. He said, in part, that the whole country is afield for Woodrow Wilson. Recounting the achievements of the national democratic administration in the construction of wise and beneficent laws which make for peace and prosperity of the nation, he held his audience during the whole address. He told how Hughes, when governor of New York, did all in his power to defeat the income tax law. He showed how Hughes vetoed the two-cent fare bill and the bill to give women teachers for the same work the same pay as men. He said that there is no North, no South, no East, no West now, but one grand country, standing united by the strong bonds of Christian love, with a Christian man filled with love for his fellow man as president. He showed that there was no legislation for the farmer and the laborer until Wilson and a democratic congress were elected. It is now quite popular to be a democrat and if there are any republicans left by the time the election comes off, they are going to be few and mighty numbers. Mr. Rawlings closed his speech with a masterly plea to the thinking republicans to for once lay aside politics and go to the polls on Nov. 7th and support with their votes the man who stands for Peace, Prosperity and Plenty.

Quite an array of democratic orators descended on the voters of the Goshen section Monday night, and all whooped things up for Wilson and the entire ticket. After County Attorney W. S. Burch, and Attorneys K. J. Francis and Herbert Reynolds had spoken calls were made for Harvey Wilkinson and Hubert C. Carpenter, both of whom gracefully responded, making effective arguments for Wilson and urging their hearers to go to the polls next Tuesday and take their neighbors to vote with them for Peace and Prosperity.

Judge C. A. Hardin goes to Waynesburg for a speech tonight.

Prominent Railroader

James C. Elmore, Son of Lincoln, Dies At Jellico, Tenn.

James C. Elmore, who was born in Lincoln county, 57 years ago, and went from the Preachersville section when a young man, to become one of the most trusted conductors in the service of the L. & N. railroad, died at his home in Jellico, Tenn., last Friday. On Saturday his remains were brought to his old home here and after short services at the grave, the remains were laid to rest in Buffalo Springs cemetery in the presence of a number of friends and loved ones.

The deceased was a member of one of the most prominent families in Lincoln county, and stood high in his profession and in the regard of all who knew him. He was a nephew of Mr. M. D. Elmore, one of Stanford's oldest and most esteemed citizens; and a brother of Menefee Elmore, a well known citizen of the Preachersville section. Other brothers and sisters who survive are Lige Elmore, of Etowah, Tenn., S. S. Elmore, of Anderson, Ind., Sam Elmore, of Palmyra, Ill., and N. C. Elmore, of Paris; Mrs. J. B. Wade, of the Walnut Flat section, Mrs. H. E. Carrier, of Louisville, Miss Peyton Elmore, of Louisville, Mrs. Tom Mansfield, of Richmond and Mrs. Fannie Smoot, of Ludlow. Mr. Elmore was married three times. Besides his wife he is survived by four children, Miss Susie Elmore, of Cincinnati, Clyde Elmore, of Jellico and Misses Frances and Elizabeth Elmore, of Jellico. The deceased had for many years been a faithful member of the Christian church. He was a member of the order of Maccabees and in every relation of life, whether business or social was esteemed and respected by his fellow men. A host of friends and loved ones mourn that he is no more.

MRS. RHEUHAM YOUNG DEAD

Mrs. Rheuham Young, aged 71 years, died Sunday at her home in the Mt. Moriah section, where she lived many years and was universally beloved. Funeral services were conducted Monday by Rev. John Young. The deceased was almost a life-long member of the Mt. Moriah Christian church. She was a widow of the late Nelson H. Young, who preceded her to the grave about 30 years ago. Two daughters survive, Mrs. Rilla Chestnut and Mrs. Emiline Young, who have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

JOE BALES DIES IN MADISON

Mrs. George Crawford, on Danville avenue, received a message Monday that her uncle, Joe Bales, had died at his home near Richmond, in Madison county. Mr. Bales was about 65 years of age, and was one of the best known livestock men in that section, and a very prominent citizen. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at half past four o'clock and Mrs. Crawford went over to be present.

SADDLE HORSES SELL LOW

R. S. Scudder and B. W. Leigh, of the West End, who attended the Thurman sale of horses at Springfield Saturday, tell the I. J. that the buyers were there from several states but that prices were very low. The best sale made was that of a six-year-old mare belonging to Judge I. C. Thurman. She brought $750 and was bought by a Pennsylvania man. The mare is by Rex Peavine and is a full sister to All Peavine. A filly colt by Red Peavine was bought by Miss Craft, of Boston, of $450. Miss Craft also bought for $310 a colt by Bourbon's Best, out of a mare by Chester Dare. A filly colt by Rex Monroe, dam Katherine Huguely, was bought by Crozier, of Pennsylvania, for $250. Scudder's Powell Peavine, by All Peavine, brought $300. He was bought by Jack O'Brien of Chicago, who also bought a two-year-old belonging to R. S. Scudder for $160. He is by All Peavine. Princess Co., in Scudder's consignment, a six-year-old mare by Chester Peavine, only brought $170. Registered colts sold all the way from $50 to $100. The sale was a very poor one, owing to the low price of horses and the high price of feed. Mr. Leigh took down three animals for the sale but brought them all back.

YOUNGSTER IMPROVES SLOWLY

Foster Thompson, four-year-old son, of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Monroe Thompson, of the Waynesburg section, is making a nice recovery from a recent operation the little fellow had to undergo. He is still confined to his home though the youngster is gaining strength rapidly and his friends hope to see the bright little lad out again soon.

SELLS FARM AT $100 PROFIT

E. L. Harris sold a farm of 85 acres, recently purchased from Dabney Davis, to Malachi Hopkins for a profit of $100. This land is located in the East End of Lincoln near Green Briar Springs. Mr. Hopkins will move his family there as soon as he can get possession.

HOW CATARRH IS CONTRACTED

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucus membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has a chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that many prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.

Fair Dates Reserved

Plans On Foot To Give Stanford Splendid Exhibition Next Year

Notwithstanding the fact that the local K. P. lodge will not hold a fair under its auspices next year, quite a number of the members of the lodge, in their individual capacity, are busily at work organizing a stock company, and a fair for Stanford is a certainty for 1917. The same dates, as have been reserved each year—third week in August—are again reserved for the Stanford fair, by the promoters. Plans are under way to make the 1917 exhibition bigger and better than ever. The bunch behind the movement is composed of strictly "live wires" and they will put on a fair which will be a credit to the city and county and maintain the high standard set by Stanford fairs in the past, which have become known as the best country fairs in the state.

Kept Secret Well

Miss Anna Warren and George Kiser Married Last December

The theory advanced that women can not keep secrets has been exploded in Stanford one time at least. On December 24, 1915, at the home of Rev. P. L. Bruce, on East Main street, Miss Anna Warren and George Kiser, were married by that gentleman. Those who witnessed the ceremony were Mrs. Walter Warren, mother of the bride, and Misses Ella and Mae Warren, sisters of the bride. The father "Judge" Walter Warren, and the rest of the family were not let into the secret, nor did they know a thing about it until a few days since. The bride remained in Stanford and conducted her millinery business with her sisters and the groom returned to Winchester and continued his work as head reporter on the Daily Sun.

The "wise ones," and they are found in Stanford, as well as elsewhere, suspected nothing. At intervals of a month or six weeks Mr. Kiser visited his wife here and the fact he was such an attentive beau might have had the tendency to prevent any suspicion that the two hearts had already been made one. Last spring Mr. Kiser spent a week in the Warren home but the gossips passed it up with the assertion that Mr. Kiser was trying mighty hard to win Miss Warren. It has been a well kept secret but the fact that their friends were kept unawares will not lessen the congratulations and good wishes that will be given Mr. and Mrs. Kiser, who will spend a day or so here and then go to Winchester and make that their home.

Mrs. Kiser is a charming young woman, very popular, and her leaving Stanford is the occasion of sincere regret. She is as pretty of character as she is of face and figure and has won her way into the hearts of the people of her home town, who join in congratulating the man who has won her heart and hand. She is the third daughter of "Judge" and Mrs. Walter Warren and with her sisters has successfully conducted a millinery store here for some time. Mr. Kiser is a fine fellow; ranks high as a newspaper man and is one of the indispensable of the Winchester Sun. He began his newspaper career at Paris, but has been with the Sun for several years. He is an excellent reporter, an easy writer and an exceptionally good all-around newspaper man.

The happy pair starts life together under most propitious circumstances and that they may love each other more and more as they know each other better and that all of the good things of life may come to them, is the wish of their legion of friends "back home" in Stanford.

DRESS CAUGHT ON FIRE

Little Susan Fisher Woods, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Woods, on the Knob Lick pike, had a close call Sunday when her dress caught fire from a paper she was playing with around a grate. Luckily her parents were in the room at the time, and extinguished the blaze before it became serious. As it was, the front of the little one's dress was badly burned, and she was scorched in several places. It was a narrow escape.

LATEST WAR NEWS

In an engagement in the English Channel between British and German torpedo-boat destroyers, two German destroyers were sunk, according to London, while the British lost an empty transport. In addition, a British torpedo-boat destroyer is missing and another was run aground after it had been disabled by a torpedo.

In a counter attack, launched with great effectiveness, the Germans south of the Somme River have recaptured parts of the trenches formerly held by them and made 412 prisoners.

The Rumanian advance in the Jiu Valley, in the region of the Vulcan Pass, continues successfully, with the capture of 312 additional prisoners.

Several Americans are reported to have been drowned when the British steamer Marina was torpedoed. Seventy of the crew of 104 are missing. Wesley Frost, American consul at Queenstown, reported he had "provisional" information that the vessel was sent down without warning. Washington officials have ordered a full investigation.

DESPONDENCY.

When you feel discouraged and despondent do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Despondency is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable everywhere.

Paid Off $10,000

When New Baptist Church At Campbellsville Is Dedicated

One of the handsomest church homes in any country town in Kentucky was formally dedicated at Campbellsville, Taylor county Sunday by the Baptist congregation, of which Rev. L. C. Kelly, who married Miss Nan Newland, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Newland, of this city, is the pastor. The building is a very handsome and commodious brick structure and its cost as about $30,000. There was a $10,000 debt on the edifice when the dedicatory day rolled around, but so intense is the enthusiasm and liberality of the members that this enormous sum was raised Sunday.

Rev. Kelly has only been pastor of the Baptist church at Campbellsville for three or four years, but he has done big things during his short stay here. He inaugurated the movement for a new church building and has done a great work with the membership and along other lines.

The new church building was formally dedicated by Rev. J. W. Porter, of Lexington, who preached the dedicatory sermon. Thousands of people gathered for the occasion, and dinner was served to some 1,200 people. The new church is admirably equipped for this or any other such special work. It is built in massive modern style of brick. In addition to its regular auditorium, it has 21 Sunday school rooms, a kitchen, banquet hall, ladies' parlor, pastor's study equipped with telephone, and all conveniences. That a town of 3,500 or 4,000 people should be able to build and support such a church, is a wonder, indeed, and shows that they must have the right sort of religion down in Taylor county.

Several auto loads of Lincoln county people attended the dedication among them Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Newland, Howard Newland, Miss Jennie Newland, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Newland and family, Dr. W. W. Burgin, his sister-in-law, Mrs. L. S. Elder and three of his children.

FAIR BUILDINGS BURN

The amphitheater of the Mt. Vernon fair was burned to the ground last Wednesday about two o'clock. The Mt. Vernon Signal says that one report says there had been some crap shooters in the building during the forenoon and another report is that some boys were playing in the building. There is no question but that it was set, either intentionally or unintentionally. The building was not insured for the reason that insurance could not be had from any reputable company. The Signal further says that the loss of the building will not in any way effect the future of the Association. Next year will see a larger and much better building than the one just burned. The loss is a heavy blow to the Association but of the 200 stockholders, there are enough who are sufficiently interested to insure the erection of a new amphitheater in plenty of time for the 1917 fair.

CURSE ON LEXINGTON BALL

A masquerade ball is scheduled for Lexington tonight. At a revival being conducted at a Methodist church there, on Sunday, Rev. D. I. Coates, the preacher, warned his hearers against going, saying: "If you go to that masquerade ball Tuesday night, the curse of Jesus Christ will be upon you. There will be no dancing or card playing in heaven, and there surely will be a lake of fire and brimstone in hell. The Bible teaches this, and I would as soon disbelieve all as discredit one part."

SOUTH END FARM BRINGS $1,800

Marion Tolliver, of the Fishing Creek section, negotiated a sale this week by which Wm Spradlin sold his farm of about 109 acres, two and a half miles south of Waynesburg to Mrs. Wilburn Caudill, of Letcher county, who is a close relative of Mr. Tolliver. The price for the place was $1,800. Mr. and Mrs. Caudill will take possession as soon as possible, and will be given a cordial welcome to that section. His many friends regret to know that Mr. Spradlin is preparing to move to Ohio to make his home in the future.

McKINNEY BANK WINS CASE

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the suit brought by Riffe & Jones, the colored hucksters, against the McKinney Deposit Bank. Their contention was that they had made several deposits for which the bank failed to give them credit. The Circuit Court decided against Riffe and Jones. In affirming that judgment the Court of Appeals says: "We see nothing in the record to raise the slightest suspicion of any effort to in any manner defraud the plaintiffs."

WILL MOVE TO PULASKI

His many friends in this county regret to know that Gran Jones, a well known farmer and hustling democrat of the Waynesburg section, is preparing to move from Lincoln over to a farm he owns in Pulaski as soon as the election is over. Mr. Jones is too good a democrat to lose the chance to vote for Woodrow Wilson, so won't go till after the election. His farm is located near Albia, in Pulaski.

REPUBLICANS IN A PANIC

Splendid news regarding the chances of Wilson to be re-elected came from all over the country. The Cincinnati Enquirer's straw vote predictions, give indications of a landslide to the president. The Enquirer said Sunday that the trend continues to favor Wilson, with the president making huge gains in all sections. All indications point to a majority of 100,000 for Wilson in Ohio. The German vote in Ohio is reported to be swinging almost solidly to Wilson as a result of Roosevelt's attacks and the fact that it is generally believed that he will be the controlling power behind Hughes should the latter happen to be elected. The Canton, Ohio, German-American Alliance composed of 300 members, on Sunday met and publicly denounced both Hughes and Roosevelt and urged all men of German sympathies to vote for Wilson.

Many republican papers in this section are making extravagant predictions and endeavoring to keep up enthusiasm among their followers, when in reality they have no facts on which to back up their claims. Once in a while, though, one has the honesty to tell the true situation. On Monday the New York Telegram, the evening edition of the New York Herald, which are strongly supporting Hughes, conceded that Hughes' campaign managers have been politically stamped by current political developments indicating President Wilson's re-election. One article is headed "Republicans in panic as campaign nears end," and says:

"Although every effort is being made to conceal the state of feeling that prevails at Republican national headquarters, it is known that the campaign managers are bordering on a panic, and so desperate do they feel today that they are at a loss as to which way to turn. This was the admission of one of the most active members of the Republican National Committee's Campaign Committee. Every preconceived arrangement for the closing of the campaign has had to be changed and the 'S. O. S.' signs that are coming in from every Republican state in the Middle West have the campaign managers in despair."

STATE AID FOR STREETS

Shelbyville is to receive $4,000 or $5,000 of state aid road money for improvement of such of its streets as constitute parts of the inter-county-seat highway system, for which state-aid money alone can be spent. Stanford and Lancaster should likewise apply for such state-aid money for improvement of both cities thoroughfares. In both cities the change from the state-aid turnpikes which have been reconstructed, to the city streets is very noticeable, and if funds can be obtained from the state road money to be used in putting the city streets in better condition, no time should be lost in applying for it at once.

All over the country it looks like a landslide to Wilson. Kentucky is certain to give him a rousing old-time majority and Lincoln county must keep step with the procession. Every democrat should be on his toes this last week of the campaign. See your neighbors who are satisfied with peace and prosperity and insist on them going to the polls is next Tuesday. It's vitally important.

The Louisville Herald, formerly Bull Moose became rampantly Republican in the present campaign. The sworn statement of the Reubli-can committee shows the Herald received some $600 for advertising and $3,000, for subscriptions.

Suspension of about 50 county newspapers due to the increased price of print paper was predicted by C. S. Clark, of the Western Newspaper Union, in a speech before the Bluegrass Publishers and Printers' Association, organized Friday at Lexington.

Commenting upon United States Senator J. W. Beckham's speech at Mayfield last week, Colonel Jim Lemon, editor of the Messenger, said: "Senator Beckham improves in wisdom and stability as the years go by, and if he has had any political enemies in the past in Graves county they are nearly all gone. To make a long story short, he received the very best of attention by all who were present, and left here conscious of the fact that he had strengthened the Democratic enthusiasm of Graves county, believing that our slogan, '5,000 votes for Wilson,' will be accomplished."

"Gets-It" Never Fails for Corns!

There's Nothing on Earth Like It For Corns and Calluses.

"Whenever you get corns and calluses, don't experiment—just use 'GETS-IT' and nothing else. Easiest and simplest thing I know to use—just a few drops on in a few seconds—'GETS-IT' does the rest." The old way is to bundle up your toes in harnesses and bandages, use salves that make toes raw, cotton rings that make your corns pop-eyed, knives and "diggers" that tear your heart out and leave the corn in. No wonder they make you limp and wince. Forget all these—use "GETS-IT", the simplest corn remedy in the world, easiest to use, never fails or sticks, painless. Your corn loosens, then you lift it off. You can wear smaller shoes.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Stanford and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by The Lincoln Pharmacy and The Penny Drug Store.

NEW ILLS COME WITH PROSPERITY

Nervous Indigestion Alarmingly Prevalent Everywhere.

DUE TO BREAK-NECK LIVING

Tanlac Health Expert Describes Symptoms of Rapidly Spreading Malady and Explains New Treatment Which Is Having Wonderful Success Wherever Introduced.

Nervous indigestion, due to the modern break-neck speed of living, has become alarmingly prevalent everywhere.

This statement by the Tanlac health expert has created much comment. He continued:

"I have never seen a time when there seemed to be so many cases of nervous indigestion among men and women in all walks of life.

Here Are Symptoms. "The symptoms are extreme irritability, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, and an almost unconquerable restlessness. Everything the victim eats disagrees with him. There the pains in the abdomen and palpitation of the heart. Such cases are usually accompanied by constipation.

"I attribute the prevalence of this trouble to the fast pace at which both men and women are forcing themselves to live. Everybody is engaged in a wild scramble for wealth during this high tide of prosperity.

"The will power can drive the human machine just so far, but there is a limit. The health breaks down all at once and the victim is miserable and unhappy—just half sick. Life loses all its zest.

How Tanlac Helps. "I have had hundreds of people call on me describing just such symptoms. They try Tanlac, and in a week or so most of them tell me that it is helping them to 'get on their feet again.' Tanlac was specially designed to relieve conditions resulting from nervous indigestion and kindred complaints. Everywhere it has been introduced it has had wonderful success."

Tanlac is sold exclusively in Stanford at The Penny Drug Store, E. R. Coleman, proprietor.

Tanlac can now be obtained in following nearby cities: Moreland, Abraham Minks, Hustonville, Adams Bros.; McKinney, True & Co.; Ellisburg, W. C. Bryant; Crab Orchard, Lyne Bros.; Brodhead, John Robbins; Lancaster, R. E. McRoberts; Bee Lick, J. Reynolds & Son; Waynesburg, W. A. Horton.

A Child's Tongue Shows If Liver Or Bowels Are Active

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Give Fruit Laxative At Once

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue. Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomachache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy: they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Company."

man we got, Woodrow Wilson, ain't so bad and he's the first man that didn't run the whole place as soon as he took his seat—always on the job early and late, and never caught napping. It true he won't burn his fingers pulling chestnuts out of the fire for some parties and won't mov the line fence over on a poor nabor—says he'll quit his job first—but with him we have had the best crops, got the most for 'em and he's fixed it so when we put the money in the bank we can git it out agin and a little more if we need it and whenever there's a little row among the boys he settles it without a fight and without makin worse. Mr. Hews, though wants all the boys to carry a gun and Mr. Rusevilt says: "Yes two pistols and a gun." My—that's pretty strong fur a peaceable community and Mr. Hews says these big crops we're raisin is ruinin the country and everything Woodrow does is plum wrong and so does Mr. Rusevilt, if Woodrow takes a horse out to work they say he ought to take a mule and if he takes a mule they say he ought to take a horse and if Woodrow milks a cow on both sides they say she'll go dry if he don't milk her from behind. Woodrow won't do that. They seem desperit anxious to have Woodrow fired before the present crop gathered.

Mr. Hughes don't claim to have experience but says Mr. Rusevilt has a big reputation as a leader. He was the man that led the Progressives an when they stampeded, he led them around to where they started and gathered up all the stray loose stock they come across. Mr. Hews also says Mr. Rusevilt is peticular h-ll and can stermenate the Hessian fly. Now Woodrow don't pretend to stermenate 'em, he just keep cool, aint in no rush to sow his wheat and flies of no kind cut much ice with him. The only crop Mr. Rusevilt raises is cain—it wont do fer I see the cinch bugs agin it and workins fer Woodrow.

Now Mr. Hews has got some of the wimmen to think they ought wear whiskers and that they will look well in em and that pitchin hay is just as easy as sowin on buttons. Wall, a few whiskers may be all right—I've got em myself, but thank goodness the wimmen aint got 'em. Bill, thar aint but one cause for wimmen suffridge and that's no-count-men. Now Woodrow believes in the little children goin to school and not robbin 'em of their childhood to say nuthin of their robbin their manhood and womanhood and so do I.

They thought they had got him in bad on the eight hour business— Wall eight hours does look pritty bad to a man that never worked any but, Bill it looks awful good to the man that's working hard, its all view point—see. Well, I must be goin Bill—things has changed since Hec was a pup—the Democratic party aint just the bones and sinews like it used to be—its the brains too, since Woodrow took a hand and so I aint for turning Woodrow off right now—not until thes crops gathered and I get the money—Mebbe not then.
